Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fuller
3402 Dryden Drive
Madison, Wisconsin

Dear Paulette and Bob:

It was a real pleasure to visit in your home the Friday night of the Campaign. I appreciated so much the ~~thoughtfulness~~ behind your invitation. I was happy to get to associate with more of the people involved in the Campaign and enjoyed thoroughly our discussion of the Holy Spirit and other Biblical subjects.

I consider you and Bob great contributions to the work in Madison. I know you are providing some unusual leadership and spiritual depth to the work there. I assure you of my prayers and continuing concern for your work in that area.

Bob, let me urge you not to become discouraged with matters as they now stand in Madison. I know that the Lord will be able to use you mightily. Above all, maintain the Christian spirit that you now have and work with the situation as best you can, and maintain the spirit that you now have.

Thank you so much for all you did for me during my week in Madison.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
